The Portland Criterium believes that bike racing should be accessible to everyone. If entry fees are a barrier for your full participation, please reach out to info@portlandcriterium.com prior to the event.

Additional Information

The Portland Criterium will be sanctioned under the rules and regulations of the Oregon Bicycle Racing Association (OBRA). All rules, regulation and codes of conduct set forth by OBRA will be in effect during the entirety of the event.

All Racers must have a current OBRA Annual or Single Event license.

The Portland Criterium explicitly supports the OBRA Transgender Athlete Participation policy, affirms the gender identities of all people and supports the inclusion of all athletes. Fields labeled as "Open" are open to all racers, including those that identify as cis/trans male, cis/trans female, or non-binary. Fields labeled as "Women" are open to racers that identify as women, and those for whom competition in the women's field is most athletically or socially appropriate as defined in the OBRA Transgender Athlete Participation Policy. The Non-Binary field is open to racers that identify as non-binary.

The Portland Criterium believes that bike racing should and can be accessible and enjoyable for everyone. Any behavior that inhibits the safety of others or is in violation of the code of conduct at this event will not be tolerated.
